Young Team Finishes With 8-3 Record

Jay Brunner, catcher for the Tigers, led all hitters with a 314 average. In tournament play, Zumbrota drew a bye for the first game and then met Cannon Falls at Kenyon. In a close game, our Tigers dropped a 1-0 decision. Scott Bradley, junior pitcher, threw a one-hitter but was tagged with the loss. Rich Bartsh, the other pitcher, is also a junior. Prospects look very good for next year, as many of the starters are only freshmen.

Homecoming 1968

"A Time of Tears,

Homecoming '68 was on its way with the announcing of the candidates for King and Queen. They were Denny McWaters, Mike Quast, Lowell Olson, Lynne Bradley, Janet Nelson, and Wendy Zeier. Junior attendants were Jo Ronningen and Mike French. Sophomore attendants were Carol Quast and Mike Nord.

After an exciting week of campaigning and colorful posters, coronation night finally arrived. Surprise, happiness and tears best describe the reactions when Denny and Lynne were crowned king and queen.

Following the crowning, a skit called "Homecomin' " was presented by the cheerleaders.

Friday night brought more excitement. The Tigers played a spirited game but lost it to Kenyon 27-6.

The Homecoming Dance Saturday night culminated the Homecoming festivities.

All and all Homecoming '68 was truly a time of tears, cheers and memories.

Advisor: Miss Hitch, Editors: Lynne Bradley, Janet Nelson.

As a suggestion from Advisor Miss Hitch and Editors Suzann Olson and Wendy Zeier, a different approach was taken this year in selecting the Annual staff. Those who wished to be on the staff were requested to make an application and the staff was then chosen from those who applied. Chosen for next year's editors were JuDee Halvorson and Jo Nerhaugen.

The Zummary editors, Janet Nelson and Lynne Bradley, their reporters busy all year. Feature articles, local gossip, senior interviews, editorials, and school news were all a part of the weekly school newspaper. The editors selected for next year's Zummary were Sher Olson and Adene Windhorst.

Action Found in Senior GAA

The Sr. G. A. A. was very active this year. They sponsored a Sadie Hawkins dance, went skiing at Welch and also sponsored a sock hop. The picture shows them at their very best playing volleyball. They played Lake City and Plainview in volleyball.

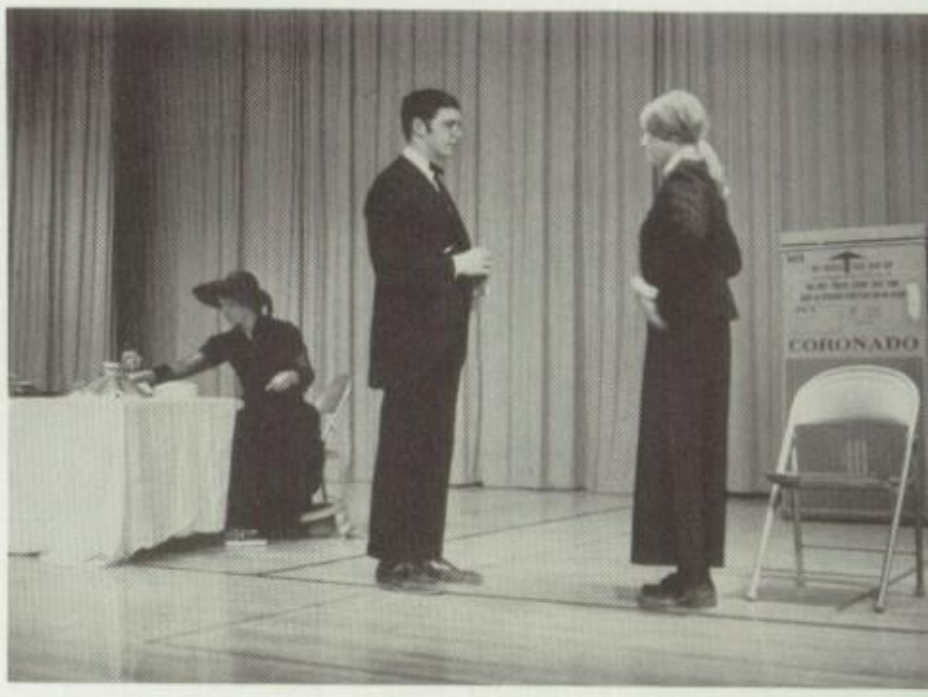
Declam, One-Act Afford Varied Speech Activities

Student participation in speech activities was high this year. In declam, three students advanced to higher contests.

The one-act play, directed by Miss Linden, was an excerpt from THE MATCHMAKER. Just before the scheduled performance, a new restriction was imposed on amateur performance of the play and it was cancelled. The following people were members of the cast: Jan Schliep, Janet Nelson, Ruth Goplen, Ron Flotterud, Tryg Larsen and Duane Bailey.



Even though the play could not be presented, dress rehearsal for a select audience proved amusing.

Boy and Girl County and State

Each year, two girls and two boys are chosen from the junior class to attend County Day. It is sponsored by the American Legion and Auxiliary and was held on April 2, 1968. That day two boys and two girls were there representing Cannon Falls, Goodhue, Pine Island, Red Wing, and Zumbrota. During the day, a tour was made of the City Hall, Court House, jail, and the Red Wing High School. Randy Mell and Linda Ramstad were chosen to represent Zumbrota at Boy and Girl State. They spent a week during the summer at a camp where they held elections and set up a democratic government. Dave Hinrichs and Nancy Fredrickson were named as alternates.
